SPOTLIGHT } Nick Hansen

{ Nicholas Joseph }

Nicholas Hansen brings custom clothing to Chicago as founder and proprietor of Nicholas Joseph custom tailoring - a cutting edge studio that specializes in exceptional quality and clothing craftsmanship without the high ticket prices. With a fashionable, yet traditional take on men's clothing, Nicholas has brought the tastes of European couture to the United States as a result of his overseas travels. A native of Lombard, IL, Nicholas is dedicated to styling and suiting men in custom fit clothing at an affordable price. Inspired by everyday fashion, Hansen's goal is to continue to grow a custom fit concept focused on the style, comfort and convenience of "made for me" pieces. Hansen currently resides in Chicago and is a graduate of UIC with a Bachelors Degree in Business.
